Dear Kelly:

On behalf of all the members of the Capital Region Partnership, I thank you for your exceptional contribution in organizing and leading the six People, Prosperity and Place forums. You did a masterful job in pulling the Partners together to develop the agenda and logistics of the forums, and your personal efforts delivered the highest quality in the website, the printed materials, the radio and television promotions, and the substance of the dialogue at each forum. The total results of your efforts have made a significant contribution to the Partnership's ongoing efforts to underscore the importance of regional cooperation to sustaining a dynamic economy and a premier quality of life for Hartford's more than one million residents.

All of the Partners appreciate the professionalism and dedication that you demonstrated through the past several months. We would be pleased to serve as a reference regarding your leadership and organizational skills for other potential clients, and we hope to have the opportunity to work with you again in the future.

Sincerely,
