

Welcome to Shea Law, Inc.

Shea Law, Inc. is a small government relations firm that offers a highly personalized approach to handling your legislative, regulatory, administrative law and municipal government concerns in Connecticut.

The firm's principal, Robert F. Shea, Jr., is a veteran lobbyist and administrative law attorney whose clients seek him out for effective services that are prompt, friendly and reasonably priced.

Shea Law, Inc. represents the interests of professional trade organizations, labor unions, small businesses, not-for-profit organizations, and individuals before all state agencies, at the state legislature and at the local government level.

Over the years, Attorney Shea has been highly effective at educating Connecticut lawmakers on the merits of dozens of major pieces of state legislation, successfully persuading legislators and other public officials to adopt laws, regulations and policies that are practical and constructive. Attorney Shea has also worked very hard to oppose and help defeat legislative and regulatory proposals that are harmful to his clients.
